Watch Report No. 1264

CIA revision of DIA Proposal, Para. 2:

Fighting between the Kurdish rebels and the Iraqi army continues along the Kurdistan front, with all indications pointing to a serious decline in the Kurdish position. We believe that the danger of a confrontation between Tehran and Baghdad along the border has been increased by the artillery exchanges between Iranian and Iraqi forces, the repeated air attacks on Iranian artillery units and the recent deployment of Iranian surface-to-air missiles inside Iraq.
